

FRACTION FOUR

Equivalent Fractions Challenge

The players take turns rolling two 6 side dice. Every time they form a fraction by using the smaller number as the numerator and the greater number as the denominator. They find the matching equivalent fraction on the table above and color it or mark it by placing a marker on top. The first player to get four fractions in a row is the winner.